

Amy Chiang

Contact

(415) 340-9014
y.amychiang@gmail.com
www.amychiangworks.com

About her

Amy is a web creator, UI/UX designer, graphic designer and an illustrator from Taiwan, and currently living and studying in San Francisco. She is a creative person who is ambitious about web and app development. She has a super nice going personality but persist in some design details. She thought she would be an artist, but she became a designer because she love to interact with people and enjoy the process to cooperate with different field of workers.

Language

English / Mandarin

Experience

2014

Mobile first website

Student in Academy of Art
Making responsive design with Media queries.
Tried JQuery mobile website.

2013

User Experience Skill

Student in Academy of Art
Project research and analysis, web content organization and user testing.

2012

Freelance

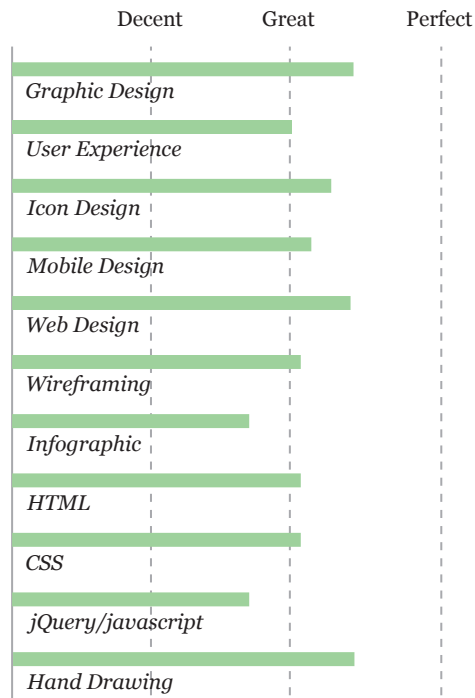

Graphic Designer
Identity design for an accounting firm business.

2011

Hong Dai Co., Ltd

Design Assistant
Assisted Designer to collect graphic materials and cooperated with designer to make the brochures, logo and advertisement.

Skill

Education

June 2015

Academy of Art

San Francisco, USA
Master of Art in Web design & New Media

June 2011

National Kaohsiung Normal University

Kaohsiung, Taiwan
Bachelor of Design in Visual Design

Interests

UI/ UX exploration
Intuitive Design
Useful and meaningful applications
Educational Concept
Simplified complicated things